Individuals selected for membership in the Career Staff will be designated as Career Employees.
- b. Persons who are accepted for membership in the Career Staff will have the obligation to serve anywhere and at any time and for any kind of duty as determined by the needs of CIA and they are assured that, in order to carry out this policy, full consideration will be given to their particular capabilities, interests, and personal circumstances.
- c. The relationship between an individual member of the Career Staff and the Agency is one of good faith on the part of each--a determination on the part of the individual to serve faithfully and understand the Agency's needs and a determination on the part of the Agency to act objectively and humanely in furthering the careers of its members.

All employees who personally desire and intend to make a career with CIA can make application for membership in the Career Staff in good conscience even though personal circumstances or family responsibilities might limit their freedom to serve in some assignments.

- d. The selection process encompasses the evaluation and development of each staff employee and staff agent during his provisional period. In this manner, the individual's capabilities and deficiencies will be evaluated in order to determine his suitability for selection into the Career Staff. The selection process will include the following stages of employee evaluation and development:
- (1) Reviewing and determining each individual's suitability, in accordance with [] for continued Agency employment prior to the expiration of the trial period;
 - (2) Evaluating each individual and preparing Fitness Reports on him, as required by []

In such cases, the CIA Selection Board may entertain an appeal by the individual, at his initiative, to appear before the Board or, at its discretion, before an Examining Panel to reconsider the case.
- h. The Director of Personnel will be responsible for giving preferential consideration for reemployment to women who were members of the Career of eligibility, whichever date is later. Effective dates of membership in the Career Staff for those individuals whose applications had previously been deferred or denied, will normally be the date on which the Selection Board accepts the individual's application for membership in the Career Staff.

- (4) If the signed application has not been received by the CIA Selection Board within 90 days of date of eligibility, it will be assumed that the employee does not wish to apply for membership in the Career Staff and official Agency records will be documented to this effect. Failure to apply for membership in the Career Staff when notified of eligibility does not invalidate an individual's right to make future application.
- (5) An individual who is departing for overseas may sign his application before leaving headquarters if he has completed his trial period.
- (6) Suitability of staff employees and staff agents for membership in the Career Staff is determined as follows:
 - (a) The Head of the Career Service concerned reviews the application and obtains the comments of the appropriate Career Board or Panel if such comments are desired. application, the Executive Director ensures that eligibility requirements have been met, assembles all available documentation pertinent to the case, and convenes an Examining Panel to consider the application.

If necessary, the Panel may request further information from the offices concerned. The Examining Panel may interview the individual and, if desired, his supervisor or other Agency employees.
- (c) If an Examining Panel considers that information available to it on a particular case appears to be inconsistent with the recommendation of the Head of the Career Service concerned or might not have been available to him when his original recommendation was made, the Executive Director of the CIA Selection Board will forward the Finding of the Examining Panel to the Head of the Career Service on an EYES ONLY basis 30 days in advance of the proposed Selection Board meeting. This will enable the Head of the Career Service to reconsider his original recommendation in the light of any new information and to modify it if he so desires. Upon receipt of his reply, the Executive Director will forward the Finding and the comments of the Head of the Career Service directly to the CIA Selection Board for action. If the Head of the Career Service has not replied within 30 days, it will be assumed he is in agreement with the Finding of the Examining Panel and the Finding will be submitted to the CIA Selection Board for action.

- (d) If the individual is overseas at the time he becomes eligible for membership in the Career Staff and an interview by the Examining Panel is felt to be necessary, the consequent decision on the acceptance of his application for membership in the Career Staff may be deferred until he is physically available in headquarters.
- (e) The Examining Panel recommends to the CIA Selection Board that the application for membership in the Career Staff of the employee be accepted (Type A), deferred (Type B), or denied (Type C).
- (f) The CIA Selection Board on behalf of the Director of Central Intelligence will take formal action on the recommendation of the Examining Panel.

- (h) The Chairman of the CIA Selection Board officially notifies the individual of its action by classified memorandum. The individual will acknowledge receipt on the memorandum of action of the CIA Selection Board. The memorandum of action is then forwarded through the Head of the Career Service to the Executive Director of the CIA Selection Board. The acknowledged memorandum, together with the individual's application, is placed in his Official Personnel Folder.

b. Separation from the Career Staff

- (1) If an individual's employment as a Career Employee is terminated, his membership in the Career Staff is automatically canceled. If he is subsequently reemployed, he must reapply for membership in the Career Staff and a determination will be made following the procedures contained in this regulation.
- (2) If an individual elects to resign from membership in the Career Staff but wishes to retain his status as a staff employee or staff agent of CIA, he will so notify the CIA Selection Board in writing, through the Head of his Career Service, and will state the reasons
